REVIEW

The 2019 Cabernet Sauvignon Howell Mountain Signature Series offers darker currants, rose petals, bay leaf, and an almost bloody, iron character that comes out with time in the glass. Full-bodied on the palate, it's silky and beautifully balanced, has no hard edges, and has incredible tannins. Coming from the Las Posadas Vineyard on Howell Mountain, this insanely good Cabernet is up with the crème de la crème of the vintage. Give it just a few years and enjoy over the following two decades.
